FROM : Chief, Orientation Faculty, IS

DATE: 22 July 1958

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #28, 16 - 22 July 1958

1. Intelligence Orientation

A. Intelligence Orientation #23 is now in its second week. During the first week the background of intelligence community and the production functions of CIA were covered.

B. [] Chief, Intelligence Production Staff, [] OSI, gave the lecture on Scientific Intelligence 17 July. [] will be the regular OSI speaker in the future.

C. [] returned temporarily from military leave on Friday 18 July to open the Collection phase of the course with his lecture on Collection of Information.

D. Since no exhibits are scheduled this month, we have been displaying samples of intelligence reports in the rear of Room 2027 each day in conjunction with lectures being given that day. On 22 July, [] set up in Room 2025 an exhibit of typical intelligence and information reports culled from all the major production and collection elements of the Agency.

is good. Re-places [] whose presentations were marred by a for our purposes by an air of calculated blindness.

2. Signal Center Intelligence Refresher Course

This 18 hour course ended on 17 July. Students were most attentive and enthusiastic and felt that the course served a definite need. A complete course report is being prepared for submission to the D/TR. Another S/C Refresher Course has been scheduled for 19 - 28 August.

Second of a series of 4.

3. Current Intelligence Briefing

Approximately 150 Agency personnel jammed the [] auditorium and its adjacent corridors on 18 July to hear the weekly Current Intelligence Briefing. [] concentrated on the past week's developments in the Middle East. The briefing this week is scheduled for 25 July from 12:30 - 1:00 and will also be held in the [] auditorium.

#155 will be used if needed this Friday. Sound will be piped over from 153. Since this is payday, the crowds will be much smaller.
